

World Song Workshop

1-Day Workshop by Bert van Dijk

Singing is an essential part of the experience and celebration of life itself. It fulfills the human need for self-expression and belonging: to be unique and to be part of a collective.

Over the years Bert has developed a unique and stimulating way of singing that draws energy and inspiration from the soles of our feet, welcoming any sound we can possibly make. He encourages people to listen with their whole body and being, thus restoring their innate ability to accurately imitate sounds.

During the workshop participants will learn a variety of exciting polyphonic (more part) songs from around the world, each capturing a unique rhythm and mood.

Singing is one of the most joyous and uplifting experiences one can imagine.

This workshop is suitable for anyone who enjoys singing with others!

Bert van Dijk is a singer, voice teacher and theatre director of international repute, who has directed numerous productions in a great variety of genres.

He conducts a variety of World Choirs in New Zealand. His Vocal Ensemble WOSOSI performs regularly at Festivals, hospitals and old folk homes, bringing joy and inspiration to our communities.

Bert is known for the stimulating and inspiring way in which he brings out the voice of people, including those who simply believed they could not sing.
